

New Presenter Lynne Mayo

Last Updated Tuesday, 03 March 2009

Here at Castledown Radio we are pleased to welcome the latest new presenter to join us, Lynne Mayo. Lynne says "retirement has given me a chance to become involved with the radio and enjoy doing something completely different." Lynne is now presenting 'Good Afternoon'—a miscellany of music, chat, and memories.....

Any type of music that brings back a memorable occasion, or event, can be celebrated every Tuesday afternoon—from 2-4pm. Just send all requests, with the stories, and we can share them—and don't forget the birthdays.

There is also a Chairbics session, a word brain teaser, plus local events and chat.

You can e-mail Lynne those requests and memories by clicking here or telephone 01264 841047

16th March 2008.
